Dear Mr. Rudovsky,

Your handwritten note on my letter of the first says you mailed me the two sets of the CIA's olson papers March 4.

You asked that I let you know if I did not receive them in a reasonable time.

As of today they have not come.

I believe I added a dollar to the check to pay for insurance.

We unfortunately have a fair amount of experience with these insurance claims because many of our books are not delivered. In practise the shipper can make the claim. This letter will support it, with your receipt. The post office will then check and find they have no on-delivery receipt because there was no delivery. After their inquiry they will send you a check for the insured value.

Sorry it has turned out this way.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
